March 2024

March Into Spring!

Daylight Saving Time begins on Sunday, March 10th! Spring forward and set your clocks ahead on Saturday night, March 9th.

Our St. Patrick's Day party will be on Friday, March 15th, with Timothy performing for our Happy Hour.

The first day of Spring is Tuesday, March 19th! Let's welcome Spring with a Mimosa and Spring Bouquet!

Save the date for our Dogwood Brunch on April 5th with pianist, Wendel Werner, performing!

Welcome, Brittany Charnley, Resident Events Director!

Brittany will bring her energy and vitality to our community this month as she joins our team to be your Resident Events Director. She has worked in senior living for over a decade, working as a Certified Nursing Assistant, later as a chair yoga instructor and then taking the role of Activities Director in independent living communities. She is a certified yoga instructor, and will enjoy incorporating yoga into her resident activities at The Villages. She has a 12-month-old baby girl, 3 dachshunds and a loving husband. Brittany attended Johnson University where she obtained her degree in Community Care and Counseling. We're excited to have her join The Villages team!

Sam Maynard - The History of Knoxville

Join us in the Community Room on Thursday, March 21, at 3:00 p.m. for a presentation about the history of Knoxville by Sam Maynard, Executive Director of James White's Fort.

Sam has a passion for history and the preservation of all historic and cultural landmarks. He has served on numerous boards, including City People, French Broad Preservation Association, Keep Knoxville Beautiful, Knox Heritage and Tennessee Stage Company. He has also served on committees for American Cancer Society, Historic Homes of Knoxville and Dogwood Arts Festival. He has won the following awards: 2019 Pauly Award, Tourism Manager of the Year and State of Tennessee Hospitality & Tourism Association.

Special thanks to Deb McMillian of East Tennessee Personal Care for sponsoring this informative event.
